DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Dear Runners and Walkers

Please excuse our unprecedented delay in bringing you the result booklet for 1988. We didn't do it on purpose, or to wish you Happy New Year - it just happened.

However, you'll have the first entry blanks for 1989. Race day will be May 20 for both the Run and Folket Marsj.

The number of runners to finish all 16 runs has dropped to five. Richard King of Chicago, the oldest of the group, failed to make the finish line. The five remaining are:

Paul Croissant, 32, Madison Peter Senzig, 46, Madison
Bill Kohrs, 62, Madison Richard Voight, 48, Middleton
Dobbin McNatt, 50, Middleton

Congratulations to this years male winner Richard Kaitany, who ran 2:10 to win the Houston Tenneco Marathon.

We also congratulate all of our four hundred volunteers who helped with Run and Folket Marsj, and especially to these directors and coordinators.

Kaitany runs away with Syttende Mai

By Paul Lawrence

They were back there somewhere. Had to be.

Yet the minutes passed, and Richard Kaitany had to savor his Syttende Mai Run win by himself. Nothing to do but take in a little water, munch an orange, and answer the questions.

"It's a tough run," Kaitany said. "After I got to the halfway point, I ran just to finish."

Kaitany, a native of Kenya and an Iowa State graduate student, is a man of apparently few words, and who can blame him after a 20-mile run, up hill and down, in 1 hour, 43 minutes, 21 seconds.

A world-class runner who clocked 2:14 in the 1984 Chicago marathon, Kaitany took control of the race almost from the start at the state Capitol, but headwinds and fairly warm running temperatures kept him from breaking the 1983 record time of 1:40.20.

"I had fun," Kaitany said after running his first-ever 20 mile race.

Finally, number two came in. Madison's Dave Allen, winner of the race in 1984 and '85, finished nearly three minutes behind Kaitany, hitting the Mandt Park finish line in 1:46.17. Allen, deciding just a few days before the race to run, had recently run in the U.S. Olympic Marathon Trials in New Jersey.

Allen said winds kept him from staying close to Kaitany's pace.

"The wind was terrible," Allen said, "the worst I've ever seen here."

Jim Ingold, a three-time winner and holder of the course record, came in third with a time of 1:49.11, followed by Peter Dodd's 1:49.17.

Chris Bebow of Madison was the first woman to finish, crossing in 2:08.24.

Kaitany runs away in Syttende Mai

Between sips of water and congratulatory remarks, Richard Kaitany of Kenya tried to convince those who would listen that his performance wasn't all that impressive.

He'd have a hard time convincing the 1,300 runners and countless spectators who were there that that was the case.

An Iowa State graduate student and world-class marathoner, Kaitany led from start to finish to capture the 16th annual Syttende mai Run Saturday. Kaitany, 31, covered the 20-mile, Madison -to- Stoughton course in 1 hour, 43 minutes, 21 seconds.

Chris Bebow of Madison pulled away to win the women's race in 2:08.24.

"I had a lot of fun," Kaitany said.

But he made the race a pain in the shins for his fellow competitors.

Race organizers and running enthusiasts alike had billed the race as a two-man duel between Kaitany and three-time winner and record holder Jim Ingold of Monticello.

When Madison's Dave Allen, who won in 1984 and '85, decided Thursday to compete, a fantastic finish – and new record – seemed inevitable.

Neither came about.

Kaitany moved out in front at the start. Three miles into the race, he had a substantial lead on everyone but Allen and Ingold.

A blistering sub-5-minute-mile pace the first five miles put Kaitany ahead of Ingold's 1983 record time of 1:40.20. But a strong headwind and temperature in the 60s killed any chance of a record on the hilly course, Kaitany said.

"It's a very tough run," said Kaitany, who ran a 2:14 in the 1984 Chicago Marathon. "After I hit the halfway point, I ran just to finish."

Kaitany skipped the Boston Marathon earlier this spring, because he was overweight and out of shape.

Those problems appeared to be a thing of the past Saturday.

"He just blew us away," Allen said. "He was 10 miles better than the rest of us. He's in a class by himself."

The dominant runner in this area for much of the decade, Allen's last minute decision to run was based largely on Kaitany's presence.

Allen admitted it probably wasn't based on logic. Just three weeks ago, Allen ran in the U.S. Olympic Marathon Trials in New Jersey.

His strategy in the Syttende Mai was to stay close and hope Kaitany would tire. For 10 miles, Allen thought he had a chance. But by the 15-mile mark, Kaitany had pushed his lead to 200 yards, and Allen's legs were running on empty.

Allen's plight wasn't helped by the windy conditions or the tough terrain.

"The wind was terrible, the worst I've ever seen it here," Allen said. "And I had forgotten how tough this course is. You keep thinking this hill has got to be the last one, but it never is."

Despite all that, Allen finished second in 1:46.17, while Ingold, who was hobbled by a left knee on which he had surgery three months ago, was third in 1:49.11.

Kaitany plans on running 20 kilometer and half marathons this summer and avoid the track. He may race in a marathon this fall. He said he used Saturday's race as a measuring stick to see how his workouts were coming.

Full strength or not, Allen said it's good the race can attract runners the caliber of Kaitany.

"It'll only give the race a better name," he said.

With two-time defending champion Mary Gellerup getting married, the women's race figured to be anybody's to win. It's just that no one figured Bebow was the person to grab it, Bebow included.

A cartographer for the U.S. Geological Survey, Bebow, 27, took control at the seven-mile mark and was never challenged. Not bad for someone who hadn't broken the 2:20 barrier in either of her two previous Syttende Mai runs.

"I ran through the entire winter," Bebow said. "I ran in the rain. I ran in the slush. I put in a lot of hard work."

"I came here wanting to win bad."

The only scare Bebow had during the race came as she entered Stoughton. As she was nearing the finish line, a few spectators told her she was the third woman to enter the city limits.

Bebow later found out the two women ahead of her were competing in the 17-mile walk, which started 30 minutes before the run.

"I hadn't seen anybody pass me so I couldn't believe there was someone ahead of me," Bebow said. "I thought, I've run this hard just to finish third. What a waste!"

Ann Courtney of Prairie du Chien was second in 2:11.36. Monticello's Monica Theis was third in 2:13.13 and Jocelyn Purtell of Middleton, fourth in 2:16.28.

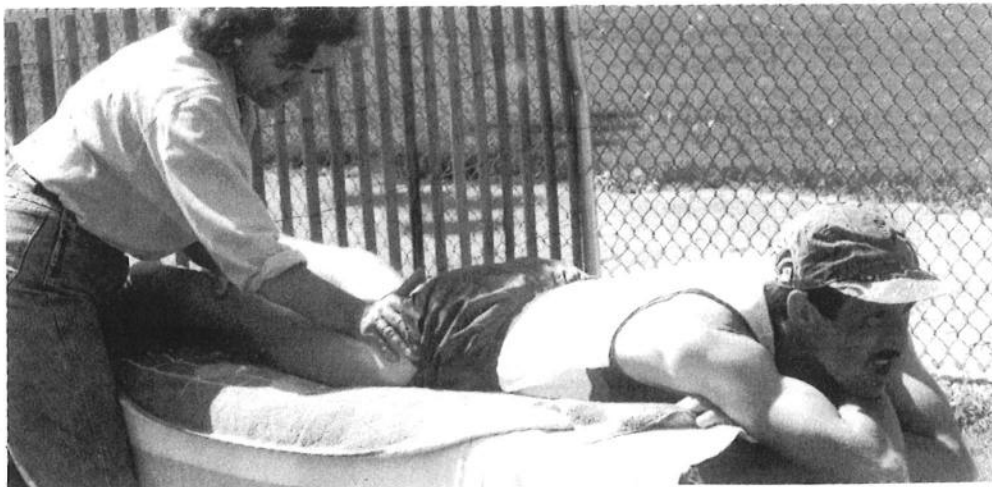

The most impressive performance, however, may have come from James McNulty of Cottage Grove.

His time of 2:16.01 had a plethora of runners shaking their head and murmuring in amazement. McNulty is 72.

The race and 17-mile walk – in its second year – drew more than 1,800 competitors combined.

MEDICAL SELF-CARE FOR BEGINNING RUNNERS

Training and Preparation: You should be able to run at least 10 miles at 10-12 minutes per mile pace to finish this race. Try to train 40 miles per week for 4 weeks before this race. If you eat before the race, eat a light breakfast at least 3 hours before the starting time. Drink about 8 oz. of fluid 1 hour before. Start warming up — stretching and jogging — about 30 minutes before the run.

Temperature is a critical factor. Significant heat injury may occur at all temperatures but particularly above 60°F. Above 60°F, wear only light athletic clothing, (shorts, T-shirt, or tank top). As the temperature increases above 60°F, your pace per mile should be reduced. For example, at 80°F beginning runners should run at least 1 minute per mile slower.

Fluid Replacement is essential to keep up with sweat losses. The average size male 140-160 pounds may lose 1.5 to 2.0 liters (quarts) of sweat per hour. Drink 6-8 oz. of fluid at each aid station. Stop to drink. Even at this rate, you may only replace 50% of sweat loss.

Problems during the Run may include muscle cramps, joint pains, blisters, fatigue. Heat symptoms are most dangerous — they are headache, dizziness, disorientation, nausea, decrease in sweat rate, pale cold skin. Do not attempt to "run through" these symptoms. Stop, walk or rest. Ask for help.

After Running. At the finish, you may experience a period of dizziness or faintness due to a fall in blood pressure. This may be prevented if you keep moving. But if symptoms develop, lie down, raise your legs and call for help.

Chronic Medical Problems. If you have medical problems such as asthma, diabetes, hypertension, or other cardiovascular problems, check with your physician before entering. Wear a "Medic Alert" tag and I.D.

Remember — Running Is Fun. But it can also be stressful. Listen to your body. Walk when you are tired. There is always another race.
