CASSIE HINTZ – 2007 Syttende Mai
First Place Female Winner

A native of Old Town, Maine, some 1,350 miles from Stoughton, Cassie Hintz actually had heard of the Syttende Mai Run.

“My dad ran it many years ago,” she said. “He did a lot of races around here.” So while attending UW-Madison as a freshman last year, Hintz decided to enter the Syttende Mai Run for herself. Hintz then won the women’s division, and finished with a smile. “I heard it was really hilly, but it wasn’t as bad as some people talked it up to be,” she said. “I really liked it. I really liked how the walkers were there with you. That was really fun.”

Completing the Syttende Mai Run’s 20-mile course was Hintz’s longest race. Even while competing for the Badgers’ women’s track and field team, her longest race is a 10K.

“Finishing all 20 miles, that was the toughest part of the run,” she said. As if being enrolled as a sophomore in civil engineering isn’t time-consuming enough, Hintz competes for the Badgers in both cross-country and track. “It keeps life interesting,” she said with a laugh.

The outdoor track and field season at UW this spring will likely keep her out of this year’s Syttende Mai Run. But in the future, she plans to enter again. “Once I’m done running (at Madison) I’ll be back,” she said.

NATHAN WEILAND – 2007 Syttende Mai Run
First Place Male Winner

Competing in his first Syttende Mai race last May, Nate Weiland broke the tape as the event’s men’s and overall winner at 1:55:27. The 24-year old native of Middleton said the course was challenging, but manageable.

“I liked it,” said Weiland, who is an assistant track and field coach at UW-Milwaukee. “I had heard about (Syttende Mai) for a long time, and last year it worked out well with my training. I was happy I could come back and do it.”

Following his victory at Syttende Mai last summer, Weiland competed in the Grandma’s Marathon in Duluth, MN on June 16th. His time there (2 hours, 27 minutes) was good enough to qualify him for this year’s Boston Marathon on April 21.

While it’s a great honor, that could impede on him returning for the 2008 Syttende Mai Run. He said if time permits, though, he will be back. “It’s a lot of fun,” Weiland said of his experience at Syttende Mai overall. “You can tell there’s a lot of support in the community for that race. There were a sizeable number of people out there. And that was pretty cool.”

Weiland graduated from UW-Milwaukee last spring with a degree in kinesiology. He said that he would like to continue coaching as a career.

Run & Walk

We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate and thank everyone who participated in the 2007 Syttende Mai 20-mile run or 17-mile walk. The run reached a milestone, as it marked the 35th year runners have embarked on the annual challenge of completing the 20-mile journey. Special congratulations go out to Paul Croissant, who is the only individual to have completed all 35-races. That is 700-miles of hills! Congratulations as well to our 2007 champions; Nathan Weiland and Cassie Hintz. As if 20-miles wasn't enough, Nathan ran a bit extra after being directed to the old course around mile 18 and having to back track. Sorry! We surpassed 1000 total entrants again this past year, with nearly 450 runners finishing the tough course and over 550 walkers completing the long march! Congratulations to everyone who won an award, set a new personal record, or simply finished. It is truly a remarkable experience to stand at the finish line and watch so many people come through in so many different conditions.

Thank you to the many groups and individuals who again volunteered their time this year to help make this event possible. We definitely couldn't do it without them, and as we have heard from many participants, the volunteers are a key component in the overall experience of the run and walk. Stoughton is a unique city, with strong traditions, and great people. This event is a one-day celebration of our great community, and we are proud play a small part in it.

We hope you enjoyed the run / walk, and look forward to seeing you again this May 17th, 2008. Don't forget to bring a friend!

Medical Self-Care for Beginning Runners

Training and Preparation: You should be able to run at least 10 miles at 10-12 minutes per mile pace to finish this race. If you eat before the race, eat a light breakfast at least 3 hours before starting time. Drink about 8 oz. of fluid one hour before. Start warming up (stretching and jogging) about 30 minutes before the run.

Temperature is a critical factor. Significant heat injury may occur at all temperatures, but particularly above 60° F, wear only light athletic clothing (shorts, t-shirt or tank top). As the temperature increases above 60° F, your pace should be reduced. For example, at 80° F, beginning runners should run at least 1 minute per mile slower.

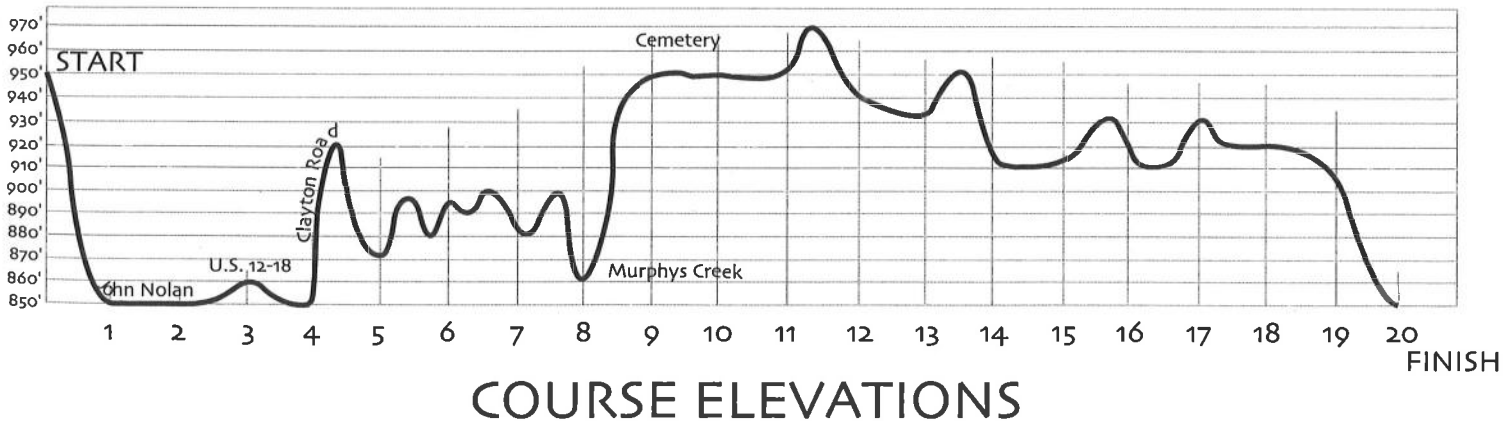

Fluid Replacement is essential to keep up with sweat losses. The average size male (140 – 160 lbs) may lose 1.5 to 2.0 liters (quarts) of sweat per hour. Drink 6 – 8 oz. of fluid at each station. Stop to drink. Even at this rate you may only replace 50% of sweat loss.

Problems during the run may include muscle cramps, joint pains, blisters and fatigue. Heat symptoms are most dangerous – they are headache, dizziness, disorientation, nausea, decrease in sweat rate, and pale, cold skin. Do not attempt to “run through” these symptoms. Stop, walk or rest and ask for help.

After Running. At the finish, you may experience a period of dizziness or faintness due to a fall in blood pressure. This may be prevented if you keep moving, but if symptoms persist, lie down, raise your legs and call for help.

Chronic Medical Problems. If you have medical problems such as asthma, diabetes, hypertension, or other cardiovascular problems, check with your physician before entering. Wear a “Medic Alert” tag and I. D. during the race.

Remember – Running is Fun. But it can also be stressful. Listen to your body. Walk when you are tired. There is always another race.
